

PASTOR, KIRKLAND A. SMITH

Reverend Kirkland A. Smith was born on January 25 in San Francisco, CA. He attended St Ignatius College Prep, San Francisco, CA, and San Jose State University, San Jose, CA, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration/Management and attended World Harvest Seminary Master's program. Pastor Smith is married to his beautiful wife, Qwivander T. Smith, and together they have five children. His ministry focus is to preach the gospel in a "real manner," to "real people," thus ensuring "real change." Reverend Smith's heart is for the unsaved and unchurched and those in the body which need a jump-start to their intimacy with God through Jesus Christ. He is a living witness to the saving and changing grace that the Lord can pour out on your life. He encourages others to taste and see that the Lord is good. (Psalm 34:8). Reverend Smith has served as a Deacon and, as Minister of Missions, held a staff position at Fremont Bible Fellowship (now Family Bible Fellowship) in Newark, CA, where Horacio S. Jones is Pastor. He was also the Director of the Tri-Cities Community Development Center. Reverend Smith is the current Senior Pastor and Executive Director of Grace Bible Fellowship of Antioch, Antioch, CA, where hundreds of lives are being saved, healed, and delivered daily. Grace Bible Fellowship of Antioch is a committed church that develops committed Christians for the Kingdom of God.
