

Antonio Walker is a proud graduate of San Jose State University, where he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Communication while also thriving as a student-athlete. With over 26 years of dedicated service at the County of Santa Clara Probation Department, Antonio has consistently shown his passion for community service and youth development.

Beyond his professional role, Antonio has held key leadership positions, including serving on the AFSCME 1587 Local Executive Board and dedicating 13 years to the San Jose NAACP, where he also served as Second Vice President for two years. In 1996, he founded Walkmanz Productions, a business that has become a creative outlet for the community, fostering artistic expression and collaboration.

His commitment to youth empowerment extends through his nonprofit, Walk Into The Light Mentorship. Focused on the Tri-City area, this program provides essential support in health, education, job readiness, and life skills, with a mission to guide young people toward a brighter future.

Antonio's deep connection to the community informs his work and outreach efforts. He's committed to building a culture of trust and goal-setting, believing firmly that hard work and perseverance lead to success. His focus on health, education, personal development, and family values continues to uplift and inspire those he mentors.

Antonio Walker remains a tireless advocate for growth and positive change, always driven by his passion for service and his desire to see his community flourish.
